Dear Constituents,

As the coronavirus (COVID-19) continues to impact all facets of daily life, including how businesses must operate, the Pacific Southwest Minority Supplier Development (PSWMSDC) is no exception. To protect the health and well-being of our team, effective March 19th, we will work remotely.

While working remotely, we remain focused on providing the best possible services that we can despite these trying times. PSWMSDC will continue to provide updates regarding all activities, programs and services on our website pswmsdc.org and via email and social media.

If you need assistance, please contact us via email at info@pswmsdc.org or phone (602) 495-9950. Upon receipt of your call or email, a staff member will return your call or respond to your email during normal business hours, 8:30 am-5:30 pm. This procedure will remain in effect until further notice.

Patti Pyle, Chairperson
Pacific Southwest Minority Supplier Development Council
